

Hello from the Watson's

The summer has started and what an amazing summer it's been already! The Lord has brought a great team together to serve at Ironwood from the counselors all the way through to our teen leadership staff. The desire that everyone has to serve this summer is outstanding.

Here's just a small example of what the Lord is doing. During this first week of camp 99 decisions were made. We know of 15 that got saved and a family member came to visit one of our summer staff and went home saying that he needed what they have and got saved without even sitting through one of the services. Two cousins of a camper came having never been to church before and never been told about salvation. This last week both brothers came to know the Lord as their personal Savior on the same night. God is so amazing!

There was a camper here this last week that has been here before named Justin. His counselor was able to talk to him finding out that he has no relationship with our Savior; and I had the opportunity to talk to him as well. However, in his words, "I know I need too but I am not ready." Right before he left on Saturday I talked with him again letting him know I would be praying that he wouldn't miss out by waiting. I know there were others this week that have been shown but are not receptive yet. . Please pray not only for those coming to camp but those leaving camp as well as they put into practice the decisions they've made.

Alison is doing very well and so is "little Wat". I can honestly say I have never before been kicked in the head by an unborn child until now. Thumper (the dog) seems to be coping with all the new things in the house. He has even taken a nap on one of baby's toys.

Please pray with us as we serve this summer.

- That Alison would have strength and get the rest she needs
- That baby would remain healthy...due date is August 7\
- That we would see the needs and go after them.

Please also pray for us as we are trying to raise more support as baby comes. We are very thankful to serve a wonderful and loving God who takes care of our needs and will continue to do so. Our God provides in such ways that continually allow us to say "To God be the glory."

Thank you for your prayers and support. It is a privilege to share with you in what God allows us to be part of.
